Compulsory Attendance Dues Parent and Caregiver Responsibilities

1. Attendance Dues are a compulsory payment under the terms of the Education and Training Act 2020 (Act) and are a condition of enrolment. Attendance Dues are charged for all students who attend Catholic integrated schools in New Zealand.

Attendance Dues are collected on behalf of the school's Proprietor, the Roman Catholic Bishop of Auckland. The Attendance Dues are forwarded to Auckland Common Fund Limited, a company established by the proprietors of Catholic Integrated Schools in the Diocese of Auckland responsible for the collection of Attendance Dues.

Under the Act, Attendance Dues are used for servicing and repaying loans to develop new building projects in the proprietors' schools as well as paying for building insurance and compliance costs, collection and administration.

2. By signing this agreement, you accept that you will pay the Attendance Dues and that you understand that payment of the Attendance Dues is a condition of enrolment and the continuing attendance of the above-named student at the school.
3. Payment of Attendance Dues should be made in full at the beginning of the academic year or, in agreement with the school, by instalment (weekly, fortnightly, monthly or per term) during the academic year. The Attendance Dues cannot be paid in full at the end of each academic year. Attendance Dues are not a donation, and they are not tax deductible.
4. Failure to pay the Attendance Dues may put your child's place at the school at risk.
5. Overdue accounts may be referred to a debt collection agency by the Proprietor.
6. This agreement is legally enforceable and the person who signs the agreement remains legally liable for payment of the Attendance Dues. Responsibility for payment of Attendance Dues may be transferred to another Parent/Caregiver provided that the new Parent/Caregiver first signs a novation agreement accepting responsibility for payment of Attendance Dues, on terms acceptable to the school and the Proprietor.
7. Any civil agreements between parents/caregivers do not take precedence over this signed legal agreement.
8. This agreement may not be varied or terminated by the Parent/Caregiver without the prior written consent of the Proprietor.
9. Financial assistance with Attendance Dues is available to families of preference students in cases of genuine financial difficulties. Part of the criteria for receiving this assistance is that regular payments have been made at an affordable level.

Attendance Dues Agreement Enrolment Guideline

Attendance Dues Agreement

The Attendance Dues Agreement must be completed at the time of enrolment, as part of the enrolment procedure.

This document must be used and cannot be incorporated into the school enrolment document.

Physical signatures are required for all enrolments – electronic signatures cannot be accepted on these agreements.

The document has fields completed on a device, but it must be printed and physically signed.

Best practise is that two caregivers sign the enrolment agreement.

The person who completes the agreement must be the same as the person signing the agreement (i.e. grandmother / aunty cannot use the parents' names then sign the document).

The Principal or delegated Authority must also sign the agreement at the time the student is accepted.

The signatures on the document are legally binding.

The agreement cannot be varied or terminated by the parent or caregiver without the prior written consent of the Proprietor.

In the case of a change of caregiver or civil agreements between parents that differ from the original document, the Novation agreement must be signed.

Novation to the enrolment agreement for the payment of Attendance Dues

A copy of the original agreement must be attached to the Novation Agreement at the time of signing.

All parties must consent to and sign the Novation agreement.

The Novation Agreement must be signed by the Principal.
